

Defensive Tactics Instructor (Contract)

Are you passionate about teaching future law enforcement and security professionals the skills they need to stay safe and effective on the job?

Oulton College is seeking a Defensive Tactics Instructor (contract, part-time) to deliver dynamic, hands-on training that prepares students for real-world scenarios in policing, corrections, and security. In this role, you'll create an engaging learning environment that emphasizes critical thinking, situational awareness, and tactical decision-making, while equipping students with practical defensive skills and best practices from the field.

What You'll Do

- Deliver interactive and practical instruction in defensive tactics*
- Guide students through hands-on demonstrations and supervised practice.*
- Implement lesson plans that connect directly to learning outcomes.*
- Evaluate performance through practical drills and written assessments.*
- Share real-world insights from law enforcement, corrections, or security to bring lessons to life.*

Contract Details

- Position Type: Contract Instructor (part-time hours)*
- Course: Defensive Tactics*
- Start Date: Immediately*
- Location: 415 Elmwood Drive,*

Moncton What You Bring

- Education or professional training in law enforcement, policing, corrections, or related field.*
- Significant field experience with demonstrated expertise in defensive tactics.*
- Knowledge of the Canadian Criminal Code and legal use of force.*

- Use of Force certification (strong asset).
- Strong instructional, communication, and interpersonal skills.
- Teaching/training experience (asset).
- Current certifications (defensive tactics, use of force, firearms safety, etc.) considered assets

To apply: Send your resumes to careers@oultoncollege.com